

Mr. Camp
2019-2020
Syllabus

Classroom Rules:

1. Be courteous to everyone in the class.
2. Come to class on time and prepared.
3. Food and drinks are allowed unless I have to pick up trash after you, then there will be NO food or drinks allowed in the classroom. The food and drink will not be allowed around the computers.
4. Participate in classroom discussion and activities.
5. Use appropriate language. This includes both oral and written language.
6. You can have cell phone and headphones in class but cannot have them while a lesson is being taught or listened to(video).

Necessary Supplies:

1. Each student must come to class prepared with a pencil or pen (not red).
2. No student should ever come to class without paper and writing utensils.

My expectations of the students:

- I expect you to be willing to participate in class. Discussion and classroom activities are more interesting and enjoyable when everyone participates.
- I expect you to do the work assigned to you. In order to do well and understand what is happening in class, you must do your assignments!
- I expect you to have an open mind in this class. Be willing to explore new ideas and thoughts in your assignments as well as in classroom discussion.

What the students can expect from me:

- You can expect that I will be excited to begin the class and enthusiastic about the material.
- You can expect that I will be willing to help you succeed. If you have any difficulties during the year, you may come see me before, during, or after school by appointment.
- You can expect that I will be fair to everyone.

Absences and Late Work:

1. You are responsible for missed tests, quizzes or assignments! As high school students, you must learn to be responsible.
2. When given an assignment, you will be given enough time to complete that assignment. Turning in late work is possible, after returning from absence you will be given two days to complete. Most of the work done in financial literacy will be done in class.

Grades: Grades will be based on a total point grading system. All assignments will be worth 100 points. Tests and daily work will all count the same.

Disciplinary Measures:

1st offense – The student will be verbally warned.

2nd – The student will be required to handwrite the whole module we are working on.

3rd – Student will be referred to the office.

- Any of these steps may be passed over due to the offense.

Contact Information:

I am here to help you succeed. If you are having problems or concerns you should feel free to contact me. You may arrange a meeting with me before, during, or after school. I may also be contacted by e-mail at jgcamp@bbisd.org and by phone at 584 – 3365.

Classroom Procedures

The procedures for entering class:

1. Once the bell rings, class will begin.
2. There will always be work so start working immediately.
3. There should be no talking. Simply enter the classroom and begin working!

Procedures for restroom breaks:

1. Restroom breaks should be taken care of before class time.
2. However you may be given the opportunity to go to the bathroom during class unless it becomes excessive (more than 3) you will be required to handwrite the module we are working on.

Procedures for the end of class.

1. I will always give you enough time to gather your things before the bell rings; therefore DO NOT begin gathering your notebooks, pens, pencils, etc. until I have given you permission.
2. Remain seated until the bell has rung. Do not line up in front of the door.
